

ARE YOU AT RISK OF HEP B AND HEP C?

- Been exposed to blood at work
- Sharing needles and other injecting equipment
- Unclean tattoo and body art practices
- Fighting, violence and blood sports
- Rituals involving blood
- Sexual activities involving blood
- First aid involving blood or needlestick injury
- Blood transfusions or organ transplants before 1990
- Sharing hygiene equipment (razors, nail clippers, toothbrushes)
- Come from a country with high rates of hepatitis

If you checked off any of the boxes, it is advisable to get tested for viral hepatitis . Talk to your GP or call us on 1800 437 222*

Finger prick tests are available at Hepatitis ACT

